DEI-LY LIGHT

FEBRUARY 2025 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

The Aloha Annual Meeting is Sunday, February 2, 2025, 11:15am (Bankson Hall). All members are invited to join in the lunch as we vote on a new council, review last year's financial situation, and approve a budget for 2025. My thanks to our council and especially Treasurer Shelly Higgins for her faithful work.

Also, my thanks to the three people going off council - Lora Schultz (VP), Tim Boyd, and Chelsea Weiss and the new people joining our leadership team - Dr. Wendy Ahlering, Richard Carlson, and Amy Don.

At the meeting, I will also report on some of the upcoming plans and ministry ideas for 2025 and beyond. (Including the 60th anniversary of our congregation, Friday, September 19 - There will be a party!)

On a serious note, we will also discuss our response to the LA Wildfires. While things are so difficult, we have been blessed in order to make a difference in the name of Jesus in our homes, neighborhoods, and world.

Isaiah 43: O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name; you are mine... when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

Our mission is to share the love of Jesus and that happens by being a good neighbor. We will be good neighbors, not just now, but for the long term. We will discuss this at the annual meeting.

Peace,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. A special thank you to Administrative Assistant Carol Weinhardt for such good work through the Christmas season and all the communication that needs to be done at the start of the year. Well done!

P.P.S. Does anyone have a sailboat to loan? It would be used on the patio or in the sanctuary (as an object lesson).

MINISTER OF ART & MUSIC

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). With all the things going on in our world and in our communities, we could use some rest. But how do you rest, especially when there is so much to do?

I admit I'm not very good at taking a break. It's fulfilling to work hard and see your efforts pay off. And when you work for a noble cause, it can almost seem immoral to stop for even a second. But resting is not about hindering or lengthening the time it takes to finish the work; it's about entrusting it to God. It's recognizing that we aren't the ones in control, that God is and He will take care of it. What a relief!

Perhaps it's time to take a couple of hours to yourself, to go on a walk or take a nap. Or maybe it's time to meet up with friends or go somewhere new! How can you find rest so you can keep going? And how can we help others find rest too?

THANKS

Dear Gloria Dei,

The children of Los Angelitos appreciate your kindness, love, and financial support this year! You've helped make their lives in Tijuana so much better with a loving casa, a family, good nutrition, an education, school supplies, medical care, and even fun summer activities. This is all because of you! Thank you for giving them all a better chance for a happy, productive life ahead.

With many thanks and blessings,
Socorro, Jeff and Francesca

Gloria Dei,

It is a sad (and cooler) Christmas this year without you. But I have a few big changes this year, and am finding a new joy in the adventures. I graduated from Luther Seminary in May and officially started interviewing for first calls in the summer.

One church stuck out for their community and youth and it turned into a good fit for me as Associate Pastor. I studied at All Saints in Norwood Young America in September and then I bought my new house to be closer to the church. Darla and I are settling in and playing in our few inches of snow for a white Christmas. I will get to spend good time with my family.

I have been keeping up with you all through social media and still reading the Dei-ly Updates. Wishing you joy and peace this Christmas season! And hoping to visit soon.

Much love,
Dana & Darla

Dear Gloria Dei family,

Thank you so much for the church and preschool staff gifts at Christmas! The gifts are truly appreciated! We hope you had a wonderful Christmas Season and a happy and healthy 2025.

Yours in Christ,
The Staff
